

Components of the Joyce Epstein Family Program Parent Engagement

- Parenting: Establishing a positive home environment to encourage success.
- Communicating: Continuous information between home and school about curriculum and student programs.
- Volunteering and Supporting School Programs: Encouragement of parents to support from the school.
- Learning at Home: Families providing assistance with learning activities with support from the schools.
- Decision Making: Active parental and family involvement at all levels of school from the schools.
- Collaborating with the community: Dissemination of information of an available network of community resource to assist parents and schools to support learning.